

Directions to the:

Claude Shannon Institute
Located on the 1st Floor of the UCD CASL Building in the Belfield Office Park

GENERAL DIRECTIONS:

Approaching from the city centre via Donnybrook

Please note that there is no right turn onto either Beaver Row or Eglington Road. If you are on this road, you must take one of the following alternative routes:

1. Stay in the left hand lane on the Donnybrook road, and turn left at Donnybrook Church. Drive around the island and cross the Stillorgan dual carriageway onto Beaver Row;
2. If you have missed this turn, simply drive through the Beaver Row/Stillorgan junction and do a legal U turn at the next right hand exit. Drive down the carriage way towards the city centre and take the next left onto Beaver Row.

The entrance to Belfield Office Park is located at the second set of traffic lights along Beaver Row.

Approaching from the city centre via Ranelagh

Approaching from the M50

Leave the M50 at Exit 13 (Sandyford Exit). Continue straight on this road, (do not turn right into the Sandyford Industrial Estate). You will pass the Goat Pub on your left, and the Clonskeagh entrance into UCD Belfield on your right. There is an Allied Irish Bank on the corner of the UCD junction. Continue through the traffic lights at this junction, along the Clonskeagh Road, and drive through two sets of Pedestrian lights. Turn right onto Beaver Row at the next traffic lights and take an immediate right into Belfield Office Park.

PUBLIC TRANSPORT

Belfield Office Park can be accessed by bus, however, there is no direct bus service to Beaver Row/Beechill Road.
